New Marion Juvenile Bureau Proves Worth In Four-Month Trial

By SCOTT McMURRAY

The juvenile bureau of the Marion police department has come of age. Unheralded and unsung, for the last four months this bureau has been on trial before city, police and juvenile officials and has passed its probationary period with honors.

The officer whose diligence and efforts have made the bureau a reality is Patrolman Justin Cornely, first police officer of the Marion force ever to be assigned full time to juvenile work.

In announcing the admission of the juvenile bureau as a full department of the local police force, E. O. Uncapher, city safety-service director said yesterday: "The fine work of Patrolman Cornely as first officer of the bureau and the admirable record he has made in reclaiming, rehabilitating and counseling delinquent juveniles in this community has made it apparent that the answer to a long-felt need for a link between the juvenile court and the police department has been found in the juvenile bureau.

"During the four months of bureau duty Officer Cornely has handled over 90 juvenile cases. Department records show that only the most serious juvenile offenders, a very small minority, have required the services of the juvenile court."

"In setting up the bureau a primary objective has been to separate the juvenile offender from the adult offender. Our aim in particular has been to make this agency one which probes at the roots of delinquency and attempts to remove its causes during the period of incubation rather than the old-fashioned method of confinement as punishment. We are trying to assist in the guidance of the child with a problem. We want our youth to learn to reason for themselves the right paths to follow. I believe that the results achieved by this bureau indicate we have found how to get that across where it will do the most good," Mr. Uncapher said.

Praised by Judge Ruzzo

Praising the work of the bureau today Juvenile Judge Edward J. Ruzzo said:

"The creation of a juvenile bureau in our police department constitutes a forward step in the direction of specialized and expert treatment of neglected children.

"Our experience in the juvenile court indicates that the majority of delinquent children are, in fact, neglected children. Officer Cornely's investigations and counseling with children and their parents servec to point up such neglect and thus to correct the problem at its source while in many cases sparing the child an unnecessary court record.

"The ultimate goal is not a softening of law enforcement, but a concerted effort to detect dangerous symptoms early and set corrective forces in motion. It further serves to teach the child respect for the law and its officers.

"Our city officials are to be commended for both the establishment of the bureau and the selection of a capable young officer to handle its important preventive responsibilities."

Chief Explains Operations

Chief Marks today outlined the coordination of the bureau with the criminal investigation, identification and traffic sections of the department.

"When any incident involving a juvenile is encountered by any officer of the department he automatically turns the juvenile in the case over to Patrolman Cornely. It is his duty to handle all juvenile matters of the department and we really keep him loaded with assignments.

"A close watch of Cornely and his work with juveniles has been in progress ever since his assignment as full-time investigator of juvenile cases. Working both in uniform and plain clothes I have seen this work increase his skill as an officer through his full-time employment on juvenile matters. It is gratifying to me to see that the probationary period of the juvenile bureau has been so successful. I have held the fond hope for a number of years that such a unit could be incorporated in the local department with the same success with which it was implemented by other police departments in larger cities. Contant association with juvenile cases enables the officer assigned to this work to develop a broad knowledge of local juveniles and their activities and frees other men of the department for work with adult offenders. I can't praise Cornely too highly for the fine attention to duty he has shown in applying himself with all industry to this work."

Justin Cornely, the city's first full-time juvenile bureau officer had this to say about his job: "I like juvenile work. I've got three boys of my own and I like boys and girls and like to work with them. I've found that kids are square-shooters and that not all of the trouble for which many children are blamed is entirely their fault. Not that I'm a softy on juvenile offenders; I had my orders from Chief Marks and Mr. Uncapher when I took this job that at no time was there to be any 'coddling' of juvenile offenders. That rule has been obeyed to the letter, and I believe that this method has paid off in better boys and girls in our town.

"I've found school authorities most cooperative in juvenile work. School absenteeism in juveniles is generally closely related to juvenile delinquency where no sickness is involved. What we need most in handling juvenile cases is the wholehearted cooperation of parents of the children involved. If the parents will help us we will do all we can to assist them in keeping their boys and girls out of trouble."

Similar to Columbus Plan

The local bureau has been in a large part patterned after the famed juvenile bureau of the Columbus police, headed for many years by Capt. Robert Berry, now chief of the Columbus police department. It is estimated by Chief Marks and Director Uncapher that almost three years have been spent in laying preparations for establishment of the bureau.

To date the bureau has been handling an average of 23 cases a month.

PURCHASING READIED FOR 70-AIR ARMADA

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 7 — The Air Force readied buying orders for 2,727 new warplanes today, awaiting only President Truman's signal to start building a 70-group peacetime airmada.

Shortly after the senate gave a 74 to 2 vote of approval yesterday to a $3,233,200,000 airpower expansion fund, air force officials announced they were warming up their purchasing machinery.

A senate-house conference committee was expected to act swiftly to compromise minor differences in the bill previously passed by a 343 to 3 vote in the house. The measure then will go to the White House where favorable action seems likely despite the $822,000,000 added to Mr. Truman's original request.

Accident Victims Show Improvement

Special to The Star

MANSFIELD, May 7 — The condition of Ted Potts, 14, and Glenn Rinehart, 19, both of Lexington, a Marine home on furlough, was reported as "slightly improved" today by attendants at Mansfield General hospital.

Both boys suffered serious injuries in a head-on collision with a tank truck on route 42, near Mt. Gilead Wednesday night which claimed the life of Donna Potts, 15, the third passenger in the car, and sister of Ted Potts.

REPORT TROOP SHIPMENT OUT OF PALESTINE

Over 3,000 British Soldiers Believed To Be in Advance Evacuation Unit.

By The United Press

JERUSALEM, May 7—Between 3,000 and 4,000 British troops boarded the transport Georgic in Haifa harbor today for what the troops themselves said was a return to England.

There was no official announcement on the number of troops leaving Palestine or their destination.

The evacuation cut heavily into British troop strength in the Holy Land, last estimated at 20,000 men.

However, the British have brought in an estimated 5,000 crack Marine commandos and other troops from Cyprus, Malta and the Suez Canal zone during the past week to cover the evacuation of regular Palestine forces.

All Britons are scheduled to be out of the Holy Land by Aug. 15, but a British source indicated the evacuation schedule is being speeded up.

Jews Report Capture Of New Territory

* * *

By The Associated Press

HAIFA, Palestine, May 7—Jews claimed today to have seized new territory from northern Palestine Arabs in the waning days of Great Britain's mandate over the Holy Land.

British rule is to end at midnight (5 p. m., Marion time) a week from tonight. Though the United Nations lately has shied away from its partition plan of last November, the Jews are setting up a government to take over then in the parts they would get under the plan.

The Jewish agency's militia, Haganah, said last night its men had captured two Arab villages between Nazareth, famed as Christ's boyhood home, and the Sea of Galilee, and had taken a hill overlooking Safad, main Arab city about 10 miles north of the sea.

Settlement Efforts Near Deadline

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 7—Beset by a long series of setbacks, the American effort to end the bloodshed in Palestine today approached a crucial deadline with little apparent chance for success.

President Truman himself stressed that the effort is continuing in every possible way. Palestine situation, in fact, is the center of current official concerntions in various parts of the world.

Mr. Truman's news conference comment yesterday was occasioned by the report of a new Jewish and Arab rebuff to the latest American peace-making attempt.

This was a four-point proposition put forward informally by American representatives at the United Nations in New York where Palestine negotiations have been centered for months.

SOCIALISTS CONVENE, MAY DRAFT THOMAS

By The United Press

READING, Pa., May 7 — The Socialists opened their national convention here today amid reports the party might draft Norman Thomas, its five-time presidential candidate, to head the ticket again.

At least eight state delegations came to the three-day convention with orders to insist on the 64-year-old Thomas. Two others have proposed nomination of Maynard C. Krueger, University of Chicago professor.

Pre-convention gossip also reported a boom growing for Mary Donovan Hapgood, Indianapolis, for the vice presidential spot. If nominated, she would be the first woman named for that post in American political history.

Erie To Keep As Many Men As Possible on Job During Strike

CLEVELAND, May 7—Erie railroad will keep as many of its employes at work "as possible" during the period of the threatened strike of locomotive engineers and firemen set for next Tuesday at 6 a. m., R. E. Woodruff, president, said today.

In a letter being mailed to all employes today, the railroad president said "With a sincere desire to keep as many of our people working as conditions will permit, it has been decided to continue those jobs which can definitely be considered as being normally productive, in other words, if there is work to be done and the particular operation can continue with reasonable efficiency, employes will remain on their jobs. Supervisors will notify those employes who are to remain at work after the deadline.

Some Jobs Not Affected

"Certain jobs are directly involved in the operation of trains; others are closely allied with daily operation, while still others are not so affected. Generally, forces will continue on current maintenance and other work where it can be performed without interruption or undue delay.

"If this unfortunate strike takes place, it will mean the compensation of many other Erie employes, in addition to those going out on strike, will be affected as there will be no need for their services," Mr. Woodruff declared.

"The strike will cause 2,100 Erie engineers and firemen on the Erie railroad to leave their jobs, which in turn will affect the jobs of 22,000 other employes not involved in the strike as there will be no need for their services," Mr. Woodruff said.

Erie railroad, along with the other companies, has accepted the findings of President Truman's fact-finding board, awarding members of the three operating unions a wage increase of 15½ cents per hour, retroactive to Nov. 1, 1947. A wage increase of the same amount was accepted by all other railroad unions following previous negotiations. Unions representing the engineers and firemen, however, are seeking further concessions and have set next Tuesday as the deadline for acceptance by the railroads.

Mr. Woodruff added that "if there is a strike, we hope it will be settled quickly so that layoffs will be of short duration."

INJURIES AT QUARRY FATAL TO J. R. PARKS

Wyandot Co. Man Crushed by Truck Dies in Hospital.

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., May 7—James R. Parks, 63, died Thursday afternoon, a scant 12 hours after he was crushed against a wall by a backing truck at the L. J. Foucht stone quarry, south of here, at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday. He died in Mercy hospital, Tiffin, where he was removed after the accident.

Crusher feeder at the quarry, Mr. Parks, was caught between a backing truck and a wall built around the crusher. Driver Ernest Vehrs Jr. was backing into the narrow walled enclosure to unload stone into the crusher. He did not see Parks who was pinned along the right side of the stone truck bed and rolled against the wall as the vehicle backed.

Brought to the office of an Upper Sandusky physician and soon after transferred to the Tiffin hospital in the Bringman & Co. ambulance, the victim was found to have suffered a crushed hip, several broken ribs and internal injuries.

He was born in Wyandot county, Feb. 16, 1885, to Granville and Mae (Houser) Parks. He was united in marriage to Maude Miller in 1907. She died in 1942. Surviving is a foster daughter, Mrs. Pearl Dawson of Lakeview.

A lifetime resident of this county, he moved from a farm north of here to Upper Sandusky six years ago.

Services will be at 2:30 p. m. Saturday from the Bringman & Co. funeral home with Rev. F. LeRoy Sarver, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran church in charge. Burial will be made in Old Mission cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p. m. Friday.

2 CONFERENCES HELD TODAY IN WASHINGTON

President Told He Has Power To Seize Lines; Heads of Unions Meet Steelman.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 7—A White House conference aimed at averting a railroad strike broke up today without a sign of progress. Another meeting was set for 4 p. m. Presidential Adviser John R. Steelman talked for an hour and a half with heads of the three strike-threatening rail Brotherhoods.

* * *

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 7—President Truman went over the railroad crisis with his cabinet at an hour-long meeting today.

The cabinet conference concluded just as presidential assistant John R. Steelman began a meeting with heads of the three brotherhoods which have called a strike for next Tuesday. Steelman is seeking some way to head off the walkout.

Leaving the cabinet session, Attorney General Clark told reporters he advised the President in an opinion last week that he has ample power to seize the railroads—in event he decides that step is advisable.

At the same time, Clark emphasized that no orders looking to seizure have been prepared.

Clark said the seizure power is under a 1916 law.

Will Be Held Till Last

Top presidential advisers insist that the President will consider seizure only as the last resort. He was said to be clinging to hope that representatives of the Brotherhoods and of the carriers will reach an agreement.

Steelman, Mr. Truman's labor expert, talked yesterday with W. T. Farley, president of the Association of American Railroads.

Clark said he would see President Truman again this afternoon and ask permission to release the seizure power opinion to the public.

Prepared by the solicitor general's office, the opinion is based on a recent supreme court decision that the United States is still technically at war.

Under this decision, Clark said, the President has the wartime authority to take over the railroads.

The Brotherhood men called in to talk with Steelman are David B. Robertson, president of the Firemen and Enginemen; Alvanley Johnston, grand chief engineer of the Locomotive Engineers, and Alfred J. Glover, president of the Switchmen's union.

Steelman did not reveal whether there was any room for optimism after his talk with Farley.

Johnston, boarding a train at Cleveland last night for the Washington conference, told reporters: "If the railroad people came in there with open minds we might get somewhere."

Johnston said he had no advance information that a settlement was in the wind.

Mr. Truman told his news conference that every effort is being made to head off the threatened strike, scheduled to begin at 6 a. m., local time, across the nation next Tuesday.

But Mr. Truman flatly denied that the office of defense transportation had been alerted to prepare for possible seizure.

DELEGATION URGES HIGHWAY EXTENSION

Marion, LaRue and Mt. Victory Group in Columbus.

Members of the Marion Chamber of Commerce street and highway committee together with representatives of the LaRue and Mt. Victory communities are in Columbus today seeking state highway department action on the extension of route 95 from LaRue west to Mt. Victory.

The delegation of approximately 20 members was to meet with the state highway director at 11 a. m. Appointment was arranged by Representative Kenneth A. Robinson.

Extension of route 95 westward from its present terminus at LaRue has been advocated for a number of years by residents and businessmen, the former interested in a more direct access to the Indian Lake resort section and the latter in the increased business a direct state route would bring to the two areas as well as to the Marion trading center.

U.S. MAILS READY TO MEET RAIL STRIKE

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 7—Leslie O. Boles, superintendent of the railway mail service's fifth division, with headquarters here, said today "plans are all ready and can be put in operation in an hour's time," for emergency mail service in event of a rail strike.

The strike would not affect railway mail employes because their services would be utilized in the emergency system, the first step of which would be an order from the postmaster-general restricting out-of-city mail to first class matter weighing no more than 16 ounces, according to Boles.

The Army will issue an order "putting their facilities at our disposal," the division superintendent said, adding that 100 trucks would be available from Fort Benjamin Harrison, northeast of Indianapolis, and others from Fort Knox, Ky., and Fort Hayes, Columbus.

Clark Won't Appeal Sentence to Prison

Attorney Thomas Fetter said today that no appeal would be filed in the case of Paul Robert Clark, 29, of 131½ South State street, who was removed yesterday from Wyandot county jail to Ohio penitentiary at Columbus to begin a sentence of 10 to 25 years for armed robbery. He was convicted in Wyandot county of the robbery of Reno's Recreation Room in Upper Sandusky April 1.

Raymond Edward Littell, 29, of 276 Park Boulevard will go on trial May 11 in Upper Sandusky on an indictment charging he also took part in the holdup.

Clark was removed to Columbus by Sheriff B. H. Stansberry and Marshal Adolph Kirchner.

Suit of Galion Man For $75,000 Settled

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 7—The New York Central railroad made an out-of-court settlement today of a $75,000 suit filed by a Galion man for $2,500, his attorney, John Miller, reported.

The suit was filed by Hoton Dempsey, 65, a former brakeman on the New York Central. He had his right leg amputated after, he said, it was injured March 9, 1944, on a run between Marion and Galion.

Dog Quarantine Voted By City Health Board

At its regular meeting at the health commissioner's office yesterday afternoon the city health board passed a dog quarantine regulation on the recommendation of Dr. M. M. Weinbaum, city health commissioner.

The regulation as passed is as follows:

"Quarantine on all dogs in the city is to be instituted for an indefinite period, effective at once. Quarantine shall means that every dog licensed or unlicensed, muzzled or unmuzzled, rabies vaccinated or unvaccinated, found running loose on the streets of the city of Marion shall be picked up by the dog warden, police department, or their agents and be held for a period of 10 days at the expense of the dog owner, keeper or harborer. At the end of which time, if licensed and found to be non-rabid it shall be returned to the owner, keeper or harborer if claimed."

A further explanation of the dog quarantine as given by Dr. Weinbaum indicates the measure has been taken as a public health precaution against a repetition of the recent wave of dog bite cases which have occurred here.

In Plain Words

By James Marlow

(This is the last of three stories on the fight in congress over the reciprocal trade agreements act.)

WASHINGTON

SECRETARY of State Marshall says the "keystone" of our foreign policy is the reciprocal trade agreements act.

That policy right now is to shove the world toward prosperity and at the same time stop the spread of communism.

Because this country is the most prosperous, and has the most at stake in stopping communism, it has taken the leadership in world trade.

James Marlow

The reciprocal trade agreements act means simply:

We'll let another country sell certain of its goods here by lowering our import taxes on them if that country does the same for some of our goods.

The act was first passed in 1934. Congress has renewed it four times since then. It dies June 12 unless renewed again.

Under the act the state department can do the tariff-lowering without any say-so from congress.

Some Republicans want to kill the act or at least change it so congress can have more to say about what agreements can be made.

Under the act, as it is, this country has agreements with 41 other nations.

Some of those agreements were made in 1947 in Geneva, Switzerland, when this country and 22 others worked out deals aimed at better world trade.

THE U. S. REPRESENTATIVES based their work on the reciprocal trade agreements act.

This Geneva conference was just one of the steps the United States has taken toward stepping up world trade.

Back in 1945 this country suggested setting up an international trade organization (ITO) as part of the United Nations.

Several years' work went into this idea. Starting last fall this country and others met at Havana, Cuba.

They completed their job in March, 1948. And 54 nations, including ours, signed an agreement to set up ITO.

(Nevertheless, this country won't become part of ITO unless congress approves. It's not expected to get around to this until next year.)

ONE OF THE CORNERSTONES in the ITO charter is the reciprocal trade agreements act.

And that act is also wrapped up in this country's European recovery plan—called the Marshall plan—for helping 16 European nations get back on their feet over the next four years.

Since 1934—according to the U. S. tariff commission—our tariffs have been cut about 47 per cent.

(Only about 40 per cent of the goods imported into this country have tariffs on them.)

Congress, before the act dies June 12, can do this with it:

1. Kill it. (This is not likely.)
2. Extend it. (President Truman wants it extended three years. Congress may extend it only one and then check on it again next year.)
3. Extend it but make changes in it.

SO THE BIG QUESTION IS: If the act is changed—for example, to give congress a stronger voice in it—will those changes help or hurt the act and what it's supposed to do?

Secretary Marshall said any "serious weakening" of the act would "almost certainly" make other nations think we're quitting as leaders of world trade.

Marshall made his statements yesterday to a house ways and means subcommittee. That subcommittee is headed by Rep. Gearhart, California Republican, one of the strongest critics of the act.

PRIMARY TEACHERS HOLD MEETING HERE

Planning Session Is Held at Home of Superintendent.

Primary teachers of the Marion county schools and the superintendents of the schools held a planning group meeting Wednesday night at the home of D. T. Mills, Marion county school superintendent, at 136 Hill street in the kindergarten rooms. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss modern reading in the school program. A record prepared by Dr. Laura Zirbes of the education department of Ohio State university in Columbus was played and discussions were held by the group. Dr. Zirbes recently was voted as the woman making the greatest contribution to education last year. Thirty-two persons were present for the meeting.

The record was divided into four parts and following each part a discussion was held. The discussion of the first part was led by Mrs. C. D. Pilkington, third grade teacher at Pleasant. Mrs. Genevieve Everett, first grade teacher at LaRue, and D. T. Mills, who have been attending a conference in reading at Ohio State. They evaluated the program given on the record and will give a report of the record to the conference later in May.

Mrs. Donna Ruth Jones, teacher at Green Camp, and Miss Mildred Little, third and fourth grade teacher at Green Camp, led the discussion on the use of modernized abacus, the counting board and ways and means to develop number work.

Plans were made to, during the next school year, hold a series of small discussion periods as problems arise in the teaching program.

The Rail Strike Threat

AS THE Tuesday deadline for a national railroad strike approaches, the federal government is exploring last-resort ways to avert a walkout.

The short-lived but costly 1946 strike was broken when the government, under the national defense act passed in 1916 when war was imminent, seized the roads and threatened to draft the strikers. Since the war still has n't been declared officially ended, it is considering similar action now.

Such a measure, however, would be only a stop-gap device and one that can't be invoked through the years.

The railway labor act of 1926 was efficient for 20 years, protecting the public from unreasonable demands by both management and labor. The act would still be efficient if labor were prepared to accept the findings of impartial mediators.

As things stand, the unions have completed all the statutory requirements of the law and no legal obstacles stand in the way of a strike. So now the matter comes down to the right of the railroaders to strike versus the right of the public to exist. The national economy cannot function without the railroads.

In this connection Senator Ball has called into session the so-called "watch-dog committee on the Taft-Hartley act to consider the possibility of bringing railroads within the purview of its provisions for anti-strike injunctions where public hearth or safety is imperiled. Whether the answer is to be found there or in some form of compulsory arbitration, the nation cannot be subject to recurrent rail strike threats.

Too Solemn for Cynics

THE third anniversary of V-E day finds the cynics having things pretty much their way. .World War II shouldn't have been fought...Russia threatens to be worse than Germany...The United States clinched its hold on the all-time sucker championship...Nobody won...Everybody lost.

The third anniversary of V-E day is too solemn for cynics to be permitted to desecrate it with bitter second guesses—which are, incidentally, subject to equally bitter third guesses by other cynics. The United States fought in World War II because it had no other honorable choice; it was attacked. It fought successfully because it believed there was not room in a civilized world for the murderous cult led by Adolf Hitler; there was nothing cynical about the will to win in the hearts of Americans, least of all in the hearts of the fighting men who upheld the American cause. Many of them died and gave up all chance of normal, healthful lives because they believed victory was worth any sacrifice. Let not the cynics sneer at them, nor at their survivors because the victory they won sometimes has seemed less than glorious. That is a matter which history must judge.

The judgements of history are founded on provable fact, not the sour surmises of cynics turned peevish because events turned out below their specifications for perfection. Would the cynics be happier in 1948 if Hitler were still riding roughshod over the dignity of mankind?

A New Marxist Manifesto

OF THE 32 so-called American intellectuals who signed a manifesto of opposition to the United States and love for Soviet Russia, looking over the list one finds the names that usually grace statements of this sort: Howard Fast, Alvah Bessie, Herbert Aptheker, Samuel Sillen, Joseph North, etc. They may have been somewhat abashed when the Soviet press picked up their little missive, with the result that it received publicity far beyond the limited circulation of their magazine.

The boys put on their usual act, spouting the fulsome prose of the Marxist mouthpiece in full cry. But they shadow-box themselves into a corner when they say, "Our capitalists have become sharply aware of the force of culture. Our president becomes an art critic: after a few easy lessons, he insults painters with confidence."

Shucks, fellows, it must be at least a week since President Truman has insulted a painter with confidence. What have you been doing while the government you love has been publicly pillorying composers for writing tunes that grate on Commissar Zhdanov's nerves? Jigging in union square to a jive version of "Saber Dance"?

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

ERP Must Be Considered as More Than a Gift.

"THE ECONOMIST," uncontestedly one of the most important weeklies in England, if not in all the world, has this to say of ERP.

"In time of peace, in order to aid nations geographically remote and politically separate from the Americas, at a time of great internal shortages, the United States is ready to give away over $5 billion worth of commodities as the first instalment of a wider program, to give them for peaceful economic reconstruction and, save for minor exceptions, to give them without political conditions of any sort. A year ago, the project would have been inconceivable — congress was then making desperately heavy weather over only $400 million for aid to Greece and Turkey. Ten years ago, such an initiative would have driven the nation en masse into the arms of the America Firsters. And search back as one may through the annals of the United States or of any other power, there is no record of a comparable act of inspired and generous diplomacy."

SOKOLSKY

It adds:

". . .It will be difficult, after this demonstration of international solidarity, to go on repeating the old gibes about American isolationism, the old complacent references to American political immaturity. In recent months, the American people, in its eagerness for information, its sustained interest in foreign affairs, and in its acceptance of positive and onerous international responsibility, is rapidly qualifying for the title of the least isolationist and self-absorbed of peoples. . . ."

Not Whole Picture

But I fear that "The Economist" does not altogether grasp the reason for the change in American attitude. The editors of this magazine attribute much of the success of ERP to Messrs. Marshall, Acheson, Vandenberg and Douglas. They might have added Bernard Baruch, Herbert Hoover, Christian Herter and dozens of others.

And there is danger in any misunderstanding about ERP. The American people do not want it to be another costly flop like the British loan. They do not expect ERP to be dissipated and wasted. As a matter of fact, they could not afford to have it dissipated and wasted.

The American people do not want a war with Soviet Russia or any other country. They do not believe that such a war will benefit the victor any more than the vanquished. They know that the last war cost more than $300,000,000,000 and left the country with a debt of $252,000,000,000, a government budget of roughly $40,000,000,000. They are convinced that the next war will alter their economic system and devastate their social and political life.

Ergo, they are willing to take out a time insurance policy and pay a high rate. If Soviet Russia is contained east of the Elbe, north of the Italian-Greek-Turkish line in the Mediterranean, out of the Near East altogether, out of China, peace may for a considerable period be possible.

17 Nations Involved

This formula involves the revival of the economies of 17 or more nations. It requires an American underwriting of their powers of economic and political survival. It forces upon the United States the "responsibility of sustaining a standard of living among these peoples, high enough to discourage revolution, high enough to create a climate antagonistic to communistic blandishments among the proletariat and the intellectuals—the latter being particularly prone to travel in alien and distant green pastures.

The formula is risky and contains within itself many germs of its own destruction. But so does any other formula that anyone can conceive. If the Russians really want a war, they can have one tomorrow morning, as the atmosphere is full of causes for war. The same is true of the United States. The marvel of it is that incident after incident has occurred and both sides have indicated a vast capacity for forbearance. But that does not mean that war may not come before ERP accomplishes its purposes.

There, in a nutshell, is the situation. If the statesmen of Europe and China and our ECA administrators use our credit carefuly, constructively, vigilantly, it may accomplish its ends. If the billions of American credit provide a wild holiday of spending for spending's sake, it will do infinite harm and may ruin the United States as well as western Europe.

Accent on Youth

By RAYMOND MOLEY

PRIVATE talk and public behavior at the 1944 Democratic convention all spelled out the general belief that Franklin D. Roosevelt would not live through a fourth term.

The battle for the vice presidency was a gruesome, sordid affair. Speaker after speaker suggested in broad terms that his man was vigorous and healthy. Truman, the final choice, was put over by bosses who eagerly looked forward to the accession of a president who would remember the boys. And all came out as anticipated.

MOLEY

The Dewey-Roosevelt campaign was overshadowed by the same spectre. But vital as the health of FDR was to the nation's welfare, no one dared make it an issue. Even a hint by one newspaper of the desirability of an impartial medical examination was violently attacked as a smear.

In the course of that campaign, the writer of this column assembled some simple figures. It is important to recall them now, for in Republican circles a good deal of intense interest is developing about a vice presidential candidate, in case Vandenberg, MacArthur or some other three-score-plus candidate is selected for president.

The increasing burden of the presidency since Lincoln has been reflected in the life span of the men who have held the office. The average life span of the first 15 presidents was approximately 74. The average for the 16 presidents beginning with Lincoln has been approximately 68. This compilation does not include the incumbent but it does include the only living ex-President, Herbert Hoover, hale and hearty at nearly 74.

Against National Average

The drop in the life span of our Presidents has, it should be noted, been running against the rise in the national average. The national life expectancy in 1900 was 49.2. In 1945, it was 65.8.

It is obvious that all that science has discovered and devised in protecting health is at the service of a President. Food, sanitation, air-conditioning and medical attention have improved. But the pressure of official duties has overwhelmed all these defenses.

This point is reinforced by another set of facts. We have been electing younger men. The average age of the first 15 presidents, at the time they assumed office, was approximately 57; of the next 16, approximately 51. Thus, the more recent presidents have undertaken the burden at an age better calculated to bear it. Despite that, they have died sooner.

Question of Collapse

Another factor looms large in these grim considerations. In the event that a president suffers the sad fate of a physical collapse short of death, there is no provision in law to determine what the Constitution calls his "inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office." This, in the case of Woodrow Wilson, was a misfortune to the nation as well as to the victim himself. It is hardly necessary to add that total incapacity is more likely to attack an older man.

The considerations presented here are offered because of a tendency on the part of commentators recently to talk about oldster-youngster tickets. This suggestion is extremely unpleasant in its connotations. Moreover, the people thus suggested as stand-in vice presidents should, but seemingly do not, repudiate the plan. The idea of a young vice president is suggested as insurance. But we want a president, not an insurance policy.

The answer is the nomination of a man under 60 who has demonstrated by vigorous campaigning that he can stand the gaff. Taft, Dewey and Stassen answer that need. And if we have to have a dark horse, let us pick a young one.

What's More, They're All Accredited

A Louisiana couple has named their children Tulane, Duke, Stanford, Harvard and Princeton.

That family is bound by old school ties.

It's a shame they never had twins. They could have called them William and Mary.

Tulane, Duke, Stanford, Harvard and Princeton . . . an introduction to those lads must sound like inventory day in a pennant factory.

It's a novel idea, but one which conceivably could be carried too far: A kid's whole life might be ruined with a name like Rensselaer Polytechnic.

Incidentally, with offspring named Harvard and Princeton, that couple may wake up any morning now and find they're being picketed by the Yale Alumni association.

Is He Kidding?

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, May 7, 1938.

Congress learned from Harry L.Hopkins, works progress administrator, the government's relief program might cost $3,000,000,000 in the next fiscal year instead of $1,000,000,000 as originally estimated by the budget committee.

A crowd of approximately 80,000 turf fans witnessed the sixty-fourth renewal of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., which was won by Lawrin, owned by H. M. Woolf.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Ring of South High street and a son to Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Michel of Cleveland avenue, bringing the week's total of births at the City hospital to 14. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde F. Brown of Fahey street.

Mrs. E. A. Cook of McAlpin, W. Va. arrived to spend Mother's Day and the remainder of the week with her mother, Mrs. Orville Fox of Blake avenue.

M. A. Virden was reelected president of the Marion county district board of health at a meeting held in the office of Health Commisioner N. Sifritt.

John Francis White, 16, son of Samuel D. White, died at his home one mile southwest of Big Island.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Monday, May 7, 1928.

Announcement was made that six feature numbers costing $1,400 and headed by Count Luckner, famous German "sea devil" of World War I, would make up the annual lecture and entertainment course of Harding High school the coming year. The course for the year just closed had as its final number a lecture by Dr. S. Parks Cadman, noted New York clergyman and radio speaker.

Ivor Nordquest, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Nordquest of Thew avenue, left for Wink, Texas, where he had accepted a position with the Atlantic Oil Producing Co.

Misses Zelda and Geneva Terry, Beulah Smith, Mary Horseman, Gene Cheney and Margaret Adams returned from Cleveland, where they had spent the weekend and attended a presentation of "Il Trovatore" by the Metropolitan Opera Co.

On the New York stock market some of the prices included Canadian Pacific 220, Delaware & Hudson 213, Union Pacific 201, International Harvester 255, Erie 59, General Electric 167¾ and American T. and T. 198.

Names of 182 teachers were on the list recommended for employment during the coming year by Supt. Jesse H. Mason. Legislation for a graduated salary schedule for senior and junior high school teachers with full college training was passed. For junior high teachers the minimum was placed at $1,260 and for senior high the minimum was $1,350.

Mrs. E. O. Uncapher was hostess to the Advance club at her home on East Center street.

The Searchlight club was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. N. Geddis on East Church street and officers headed by Mrs. A. N. Grimes as president were installed.

Congressman Martin L. Davey of Kent addressed a meeting of Democrats at Hotel Marion, climaxing a series of talks given in the county by him during the day. In talks given to students at Harding High school and Waldo and Pleasant township schools, his subject was tree culture and forest conservation. In his political talk he said the "basic differences between the principles of government espoused by the Democratic and Republican parties were as clearly pronounced as when first outlined under the opposing leaderships of Jefferson and Hamilton."

Farmers' Use of Oil Soars

Rural Mechanization Called Major Cause.

THE number of tractors on American farms, almost tripling since 1935, has been a major factor in the increase of American oil consumption, reports the Oil Industry Information Committee.

American farms use about 3,000,000 tractors to operate nearly 15,000,000 implements, the committee reports. Farms have 1,880,000 trucks, 62 per cent more than in 1941 and 21 per cent more than at the war's end. The 4,680,000 farm-owned automobiles represents a 20 per cent increase in 30 months.

The farm production rate of increase has risen to seven times its 1935 level when the trend toward agricultural mechanization began to take a definite hold, the committee reports. From 1910 to 1935, the average rate of increase was 0.6 per cent. Now it is 4 per cent.

Other factors in increasing use of petroleum products on farms include the rising number of self-propelled combines and a steady gain in employment of airplanes for dusting, spraying, sowing and other jobs. There are more than 10,000 combines in use, 183 per cent more than on V-J Day. Farm airplanes total 9,000, a gain of 8,900 over 1941.

Mechanization has effected a big increase in production despite a declining farm population, the committee said. More than 1,000,000 million workers have left farms since 1935.

State Police Forces Growing

STATE POLICE forces are being built up to cope with upsurging crime and highway deaths in rural regions, the 1948-'49 edition of the "Book of the States," published by the Council of State governments, reveals.

The statistical story of the rebuilding of war-drained police agencies shows that more manpower and more equipment have been obtained, and better training methods have been adopted.

The manpower total of the 48 state departments has been increased from 9,961 to 13,944 in the last two years. Annual appropriations went up from $38,000,000 in 1944 to $56,000,000 in 1947. It still is hard to get new vehicles, but, 1,283 motor cars have been added since the war.

Communications systems were expanded and improved, and 5,590 of 7,535 police automobiles are now equipped with two-way and three-way radios.

The strengthening of state departments coincides with an increase in law-enforcement problems outside the big population centers. The Federal Bureau of Investigation reports crime rose 7.5 per cent in rural areas and dropped 2.3 per cent in cities in the first half of 1947.

There was a similar pattern in fatal automobile accidents. The National Safety Council found 59 per cent of United States traffic victims were killed on highways in the first 10 months of 1947.

Getting and holding capable officers involves difficulties, however.

"In only 11 states is the police personnel under the civil service system," the article sets forth. "In many areas appointments are based upon, or influenced by, political considerations."

The general conclusion reached is: "The present situation is encouraging. More effective law enforcement is possible through the improvements of the last two years, but there still are many obstacles to be overcome. Higher salaries must be paid, personnel selection and discipline must be removed from partisan politics and disability and retirement systems based upon sound actuarial principles must be established."

That's Inflation

Inflation is an ancient goldbrick. From time to time it is given a modern setting. On the surface it looks so appealing and attractive that it is as readily accepted as though it were genuine. In truth, it is the fraud of the ages.

Its historical background is as old as the hills; its consequences as destructive as the "four horsemen." It leaves ruin, privation, hopelessness and strife in its wake. It prevents an orderly flow of commerce. It liquidates the fruits of thrift. It robs the people of life savings. It sends the old to their graves prematurely. It is a poison virus which, once it takes hold, seldom releases its grip until the victim surrenders or collapses. —Harry Heimann, executive manager, National Association of Credit Men.

YOU'RE out of the Army now—
You're out of the Army now—
Salutes cannot reach yer—
It's apples for teacher—
You're in Columbia now!

You're in the college now—
At morningside for chow—
No sergeants chirp "Yessir"—
It's now "Dear professor"—
You're out of the Army now.

You're out of Fort Myer now—
Your IQ up and how!—
No bugles cry "Faster!"—
You're now a schoolmaster—
You're in Columbia now!

You're done with carnage bad—
You're now a rah-rah lad—
You're through as a fighter,
You Morningside Heighter—
You're out of the brassworks now!

You're done with a fun, old chap—
You just need gown and cap—
You'll take no more cities—
You'll sing college ditties—
You've changed your routine now.

Your troubles now begin
With dormitory gin!—
You can't shoot a jill
Who goes "over the hill"—
Her marks may keep her in.

What problems you will face
In this (for you) new place!—
No KP will do

Or football field disgrace.

It's curtains for GHQ—
You'll just get a Hudson view—
You'll skip medals and kale
For a win over Yale—
Columbia's getting you.

You're finished with reveille—
To ashcans you'll wake each day—
If you think you'll sleep longer,
You never were "wronger"—
You'll learn the New York way.

You may think the war was bleak
But wait'll you're there a week—
The routine's a riot—

Try That Hard One

By TRUMAN TWILL

The joys of parenthood are manifest when an offspring invites the old man to step into the back yard for a little game of catch and stands 60 feet away to receive the old boy's high, hard one, which hits the ground before it has covered 40 feet and dribbles to a stop 10 feet short of the target.

And when the second, third, fourth and subsequent throws all have fallen short, gone wild or proved to be girlish bloopers not even resembling a change of pace and the offspring tactfully keeps moving closer until he is tossing them back underhanded with a concerned expression on his face when it is not contorted with repressed laughter.

And when the old man's attempts to throw a roundhouse curve have produced nothing but a stabbing pain in his arm and his offspring volunteers to show him how to do it, twirling a spinning looper that breaks two feet away from where the old man is waiting to catch it and making him look as foolish as he feels, which is as foolish as a bench warmer for the Yankees.

And when to conceal his discomfiture the old man admonishes the offspring to stick to straight throwing and not monkey around with curves and the next one comes steaming down the middle of the alley chin high and headed for the accessory of the same title unless stopped, which is done with a fielder's mitt held rigidly in a position of defense—and the consequence is a hot hand that has to be cooled off with bursts of pre-heated profanity to take out the sting and frantic waving to make it plain that papa is saying those things because he has been hurt, not because he's mad at Junior.

And when this sort of nonsense goes on and on, with the old man waiting for any excuse to call it off and the offspring having the same feeling about it and neither of them wanting to admit that as far as baseball is concerned they are no longer compatible as players of the game but only as customers—and the old guy's flipper getting wearier and wearier, to say nothing of the palpitation in his ticker and the charley horse browsing on the tissues in his hind leg.

And even the offspring's mother is looking anxiously through the window to make sure the old geezer hasn't gone off his nut entirely and conked himself into a week in bed because he won't admit that there is a limit to how foolish a man should be...and one of the offspring's pals is waiting nearby to engage said offspring in a rousing game of hot-hand if the old gent a man kindly will go back inside the house to his slippers and easy chair...which he finally does, barely making it and promising himself that he never will make a fool of himself again at least not until next spring..."Hay Martha, where's that bottle of stuff for strained muscles?"

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

JOE'S luck held," at least as far as the Lansfield. He drove up to the entrance to the office building adjoining the hotel with an entrance on a different street, and I saw Adams and Winters peering cautiously out of the doorway.

"Street's empty," Joe said laconically. "It's safe to get out, but make it snappy."

Gus was already at the door of the car, and Dicky and I hurried out, sending "thanks yous" over our shoulders to the efficient driver. Gus waited until he saw us under the lee of Adams and Winters, then scurried back to the armored car which Joe set in motion almost before Gus had closed the door.

"Have they been waiting here all night?" I murmured, bewildered, as Adams preceding us and Winters bringing up the rear, we passed through the sub-basement passages to the Lansfield.

"You must have been pounding your shell-like ear assiduously," Dicky whispered back. "We stopped at that garage Joe uses on the way back, and I telephoned Olson at the Lansfield in code. Too bad to get a hotel manager out of bed at this hour, but he didn't seem disturbed."

"I think he's thrilled to the center of his apparently prosaic being at being a part of Father's hush-hush problems," I said, careful to keep my voice lowered.

"Probably imagines he's a reincarnation of one of the Three Musketeers." Dicky chuckled, and then we said no more until after our journey in the elevators we came to our own apartment.

To our astonishment, it was Lillian who let us in after inspecting us over the night chain. But no one of us said anything until we were inside, with Adams and Winters well thanked and dismissed.

"Is anything the matter?" I asked tremulously as soon as the door had closed.

"Not a thing except the 'Chief's' jitters over you," she said. "He had us come up here with him a few hours ago when he had finished up a few details of some problem not connected with you or Georges. I imagine that aside from his wish to see you in the flesh the minute you should arrive, he is very anxious to know how our royal playboy is reacting."

"He is reacting plenty," Dicky told her, "but I don't think we need to give the 'Chief' anything save the highlights. Do you, Madge?"

"Decidedly not," I agreed, with a mental vision of my father's face should I tell him some of the things Georges had said to me.

"But," Dicky went on "when the rest of you hear the soulful utterances our Georgy Porgy has been pouring into my spouse's shell-like ears, you'll be rolling on the floor."

"You don't suppose we could let the 'Chief' sleep a little longer, while we bend our less shapely ears?" my old friend said hopefully, but I shook my head.

"You know better than that," I said, "knowing Father. Where is everybody, by the way? I see you've been sleeping here," I finished with a glance at the big living room couch on top of which were sheets and blankets.

"Sub-'elementary, Watson'," she sniffed. "Mary and Katharine are in the next room, Faith in her own room, your father in Dicky's room, next to hers, with the door open, and Harry is parked down the hall in your study. I trust you don't object."

"Not a bit,' I said, as she finished with a gamin grin at me." And I think I'll go down and waken Father now."

"Good idea," Lillian said, "He'll want to see you first thing. But don't do any knocking. Barge in through Faith's room. The doors are all ajar, and a night light going. But if you waken that child the Lord or the devil can help you. I won't."

GALION SCHOOL CAST GIVING PLAY TUESDAY

Special to The Star

GALION, May 7—The series of final activities for the 1948 senior class of Galion High school will be launched next Tuesday night when a cast of 16 seniors presents the class play "Nine Pine Street," a three-act drama under the direction of Miss Miriam Sayre.

Final touches are now highlighting the rehearsals for the production, and the stage crew: Arthur O'Leary, manager, and Donald Hocker and Everett Bratcher, with the help of the senior class faculty sponsor, W. L. Swick, are busy preparing the set.

Costumes and setting are of the period of 1886. While attics of the city have been ransacked for choice period costumes, other costumes have been secured from a Columbus firm. Production staff and players have scoured the town to select furniture of the period. Beverly Logan has been handling publicity for the play, and Dick Britt is in charge of ticket sales.

The senior class this year has 98 members; the list of graduates is to be approved soon at a meeting of the board of education. Robert Beegle heads the class as president; vice president is Katherine Bercaw; secretary, Ruth Steffee; treasurer, Leo Tuscan.

Ann Faber is editor-in-chief of The Spy, annual year book published by the senior class. Dick Britt is assistant editor, and Gerald Thatcher is business manager.

Petrillo Invitation Accepted by Truman

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 7—Piano-playing President Truman accepted an invitation yesterday from James C. Petrillo, the trumpet blower, to a symphony concert May 25.

The concert, in Constitution hall, will be the opening of the second year of the American Federation of Musicians music appreciation program.

Petrillo, president of the musicians union, said Mrs. Truman and daughter Margaret, also will attend.

It was a case of "two musicians discussing a little bit of harmony," Petrillo told reporters as he left the President's office.

He said he suggested they get together some time for a little music.

"I told him I would play the 'Rosary'—the first number I ever played that meant anything to me, while he accompanied me on the piano," Petrillo related.

MARION CO. WOMAN DROWNS IN LAKE ERIE

Body of Miss Ruth Lichtenberger Taken from Water.

The body of a Marion county woman, Miss Ruth Lichtenberger, 31, of near Waldo, was recovered from Lake Erie last night off North Bass Island, near Port Clinton, where she has been employed as teacher at the island's one room school for two years.

Fishermen noticed her struggling in the water about 100 feet off the pier and went to her rescue, Dr. George A. Poe, Ottawa county coroner said. She was dead by the time a resuscitator could be taken to the island beach, he added His verdict was suicide by drowning.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Lichtenberger, she had taught at the North Bass Island school for the past two years, teaching all grades in the little school.

She had taken the position after being out of school work several years, when the scarcity of teachers prompted her to return to teaching, her family said today. She had formerly taught at Danville, O.

She had been home during the Easter vacation but had not been home since, they said.

Her body was returned today from the Gerner Wolfe funeral home in Port Clinton to the Curl mortuary in Carrington. Funeral services are to be held at 1.30 p. m. Monday at her home and at 2 p. m. at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Waldo, Rev. S. C. Long officiating.

A daughter of Harvey and Minnie Schorr Lichtenberger, she was born in Marion county Jan. 12, 1917. She graduated from Waldo High school in 1934 and completed a teacher training course at Capital university, Columbus, in 1936.

Besides her parents she leaves two brothers, Harry and Raymond, and two sisters, Martha and Mary Alice, all of Waldo.

Friends may call at the home after noon Saturday.

Pedestrian Injured In Traffic Accident

L. C. Layman, 61, of 457 Uncapher avenue suffered bruises of the head, arm and leg when he was struck after walking into the path of a car driven by George Kuba of 411 Blaine avenue. Mr. Layman was crossing Davids street at 11:10 p. m. last night when the accident occurred. He was treated at the Marion Clinic and released, according to police reports.

Victims of Crash Improve at Kenton

The condition of Mrs. T. A. Ballinger of Alger, injured Tuesday night in an automobile accident near Kenton, was reported as "good" today at San Antonio hospital in Kenton. Condition of R. R. Downs of Helena, Mont., brother of Mrs. Ballinger, also injured in the Tuesday night accident, was listed as "fair," and it was reported that further X-rays were to be taken this afternoon. Mr. Downs suffered a fractured rib and head injuries. He was a guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Ballinger, and was returning with them after visiting with Miss Elaine Ballinger in Marion when the accident happened. Mrs. Ballinger suffered severe head cuts and bruises.

Rev. Ballinger, driver of the car, told a member of the highway patrol that lights of an approaching car blinded him and that as he turned out to the side of the road he failed to see a bridge and guard rail in time to swing the car clear. After hospitalization for severe chest and leg bruises he was dismissed from the hospital Wednesday.

Students Return As Strike Is Called Off

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., May 7—Copley High school students called off their strike and trooped back to class today in return for further study on re-hiring their principal.

Lloyd Sir Louis, a member of the community's school board, said the board had agreed to consider at its next meeting a plan for studying the case of former Principal Frank Weiss.

About two thirds of the school's 300 pupils failed to report for classes Tuesday after Weiss' contract was not renewed. School Supt. E. R. Malone said the school action was taken because he "lacked leadership."

Under the settlement plan, a nine-member committee would be appointed to decide if Weiss' ousting was justified.

The agreement was announced last night at a school meeting attended by some 100 teachers, pupils and parents.

Galion School Board Votes Pay Adjustment

Special to The Star

GALION, O., May 7—The Galion city board of education at a meeting last night approved a $60 wage adjustment for all teachers for the 1947-48 school term. The adjustment was necessary, board members said, in order to comply with the school foundation law which requires 75 per cent of the recent increase in state money to be used for teachers' salaries.

Last summer the board voted a flat increase in pay of $450 for all teachers. The $60 adjustment voted yesterday is for the current school year and does not affect the base pay schedule. It will be paid June 15.

Teachers' Federation Holds Sixth Annual Dinner Meeting

Members of the Marion Federation of Teachers were joined by a number of guests for their sixth annual dinner and program held last night in the recreation room of the First Presbyterian church. Speaker for the evening was Lester L. Dickey, superintendent of the Marion public schools. Covers were placed for 70 at the dinner. Newly-elected officers took over their duties following the program.

Miss Helen Atchinson, chairman of the social committee, presided as toastmistress and the program hour opened with a group of numbers by an instrumental trio composed of Homer Huffman, violin, Mrs. Fanny Benson, piano, and George Lane, viola. They played "On Wings of Song," Mendelssohn, "Spanish Tango" and "Play Gypsy, Dance Gypsy."

Mr. Dickey discussed education, and teaching today, and interspersed the serious part of his talk with humor. Success in the schoolroom depends on keeping pleasant, developing and maintaining the spirit of democracy and cooperation, Mr. Dickey said.

Points To Improvements

He urged teachers to keep optimistic about their chosen profession in spite of the relative low salary schedules and pointed out that conditions had improved and no doubt would continue to do so.

Referring to the local picture Mr. Dickey noted that Marion schools are graduating approximately 40 per cent of pupils who enter the first grade while in some cities the percentage is 95. This, he said, is due to the broader program and curricular activities which includes a wide variety of subjects and vocational advantages.

Under the more flexible program more variety and opportunities for pupils will have to be added to bring the percentage of graduates to a higher level, and included in the program must be the development and practice of democracy, Mr. Dickey stated. Improved human relations, character building services for children and improved health services were among the things suggested. Emphasizing the importance of a happy cooperative organization, he said that happiness for all depends on all pulling together.

LeMoyne Green, reelected to head the federation this year, was installed as president, Miss Reta Van Meter, vice president, Miss Grace Wingett, recording secretary, Miss Margaret Seiter, sergeant-at-arms and Miss Katherine Thew, secretary-treasurer.

Guests included Supt. and Mrs. Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Webster, Rev. Howard L. Olewiler, pastor of the host church Mrs. Benson, John Zuck, Carroll W. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Oliphant, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Runkle, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Supt. E. E. Banning, superintendent, and members of the staff at the Pleasant Centralized school. Mr. Wilson is a past president of the local organization and also of the state federation.

Assisting Miss Atchinson in planning the banquet were Miss Katherine Thew, Miss Clara Alice Wilson, Miss Reta Van Meter, Miss Margaret Topliff, Miss Margaret Seiter, Miss Rhea King, Miss Helen Warwick and Mrs. Rex Booth.

New Hope for Children Born with Birthmark

We are all familiar with the type of birthmark which appears as a red blotch on the skin. Known as hemangiomas, these birthmarks consist of dilated blood vessels within the skin and tissues immediately beneath it.

Formerly, a child born with such a mark on the face or neck was to be pitied because there was nothing which could be done to remove it, but today only one variety of hemangioma seems to resist treatment; nearly all the others can be reduced to nothing more than a faint pink blush if treatment is begun early enough.

Fortunately, the one which is most difficult to deal with is also the least common. This is the so-called port wine stain which is caused by a network of enlarged capillaries, the tiniest of the body's blood vessels. As a rule skin-thickening or tumor growth is not associated with this type of birthmark.

The mark is red to purple in color and may become slightly darker when the baby cries or strains, but pressure over the involved skin does not cause it to pale.

Treatment with radium or X-ray may lighten the mark a little but will not eliminate it completely. Today, however, there are good creams and pastes which can be used to camouflage the mark completely. Parents should be instructed to begin their use early in the child's life so that he will escape the emotional injury which comes from curious stares or the the taunts of his playmates.

The second variety of hemangioma is called the strawberry mark. This is made up of blood vessels larger than capillaries and shows a local tumor growth. It tends to increase in thickness and becomes darker when the baby cries or strains. The mark flattens out or blanches on pressures.

The third type is called the cavernous hemangioma, and is made up of larger blood vessels in the tissues under the skin. The mark may be seen faintly through the skin as blue streaks. This mark may often be combined with the strawberry mark.

These other types of hemangioma should be treated as soon as discovered. Since most of these marks are visible at birth, the first treatment should be given before the infant leaves the hospital. X-ray treatments seem to give the most satisfactory results for the majority of cases. There are many birthmarks which can be virtually obliterated in three treatments if the treatments are started within the first month of life. In some instances, radium is used instead of X-ray. This is a question for the doctor to decide and it must always be remembered that some hemangiomas are not checked by either form of radiation, but must be injected in the same way as varicose or dilated veins and then, like them, removed surgically.

MT. GILEAD, May 7—Kenneth K. LIMA LADY LOSES 88½ POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Mrs. C. M. Wright, 124 West 5th St., loses weight without dieting.

"I have tried many reducing preparations but nothing ever helped me until I tried Rennel" writes Mrs. Wright. "Since I started taking Rennel I have eaten as much as I wanted and anything that I wanted yet I have lost weight and feel much better than I have in ten years. Before taking Rennel my excess weight kept me tired out all of the time. I am so happy that I tried Rennel because the other products that I have tried didn't help me at all. My druggist recommended Rennel to me and I wouldn't be without it."

Rennel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple, go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough unsweetened grapefruit juice to fill the bottle, take just two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen hips, calves and ankles; just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel, no starvation diet, no printed diet list to buy, no expensive vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry.

C SAYS LAMB OBE STARTED

Charges of Red Affilia- ...s Against Attorney ...ady Under Way.

By The United Press

...TON, May 7—The ...American activities ... is checking ...Edward Lamb, To- ... attorney and pub- ...trenched" in Commu- ..., it was disclosed ...

... Edward Herbert, (D), ... yesterday demanded ... investigations to de- termine if the federal communications commission is helping create "a sinister Red network" by granting five broadcast permits to Lamb.

He had charged on the house floor Wednesday that Lamb is "saturated and drenched" in Communist writings, associations and affiliations.

Lamb declared in Erie, Pa., that the charges were "violent falsehoods." They were inspired, he said, by his business competitors. He did not identify them by name.

Although Rep. Herbert is a member of the un-American activities committee, he apparently was unaware that an investigation of Lamb is under way. A committee spokesman said the check had been in progress "for some time."

"In a way it's too bad Mr. Herbert made his request," they said, "because it forces us to show our hand."

Lamb is a prominent Ohio labor attorney. He handled the portal-to-portal pay claims of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) in 1946. He also is president of the Record Publishing Co. which puts out the Erie, Pa., Dispatch.

Rep. Herbert demanded the investigations in letters to Chairman J. Parnell Thomas, (R), of New Jersey, of the un-American activities committee and Chairman Charles A. Wolverton, (R) of New Jersey, of the commerce committee.

Both letters referred to Lamb's success in getting permits to operate FM and television stations in Pennsylvania and Ohio. Rep. Herbert called attention to what he called Lamb's "long record" of association with Communist fronts.

The un-American activities committee, he said, "should find out just how deep communistic influences reach into the federal communications commission in the granting of permits."

Lamb said there was nothing unusual in the fact that the FCC granted him five permits within two weeks. Some of the applications, he said, had been in as long as two years.

SERVICE AT HARPSTER

At the Harpster Methodist church Sunday, a Mother's day program of songs will follow Sunday school. No preaching service will be held, Rev. Fred Ross, pastor, announced. OBERLIN MOCK GOP CONVENTION OPENS

By The Associated Press

OBERLIN, O., May 7—Oberlin college's traditional mock Republican convention opens today for two days of intensive debate on a platform and a pair of nominees.

Starting with the choice of Abraham Lincoln in 1860, the convention's presidential nominee has been duplicated by the Republican party nine times since.

Sessions of the convention duplicate the meetings of the national party. Organization of state delegations, lobby pressure groups, behind-the-scenes deals, and exuberant demonstrations combine to produce a realistic replica. At least 1,200 spectators are expected for this 22nd session.

Tonight delegates will begin debate over a 12-plank, 4,000-word platform. Controversy is expected over planks which defend the Taft-Hartley act, oppose federal aid to education and oppose universal military training.

Tomorrow night's session will nominate the presidential and vice presidential candidates. At least 16 candidates are expected to be in the running for president. Including Sen. Arthur Vandenberg, Harold E. Stassen, Sen. Robert A. Taft and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, who have shown strength in that order in school polls.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey will serve as keynoter and temporary chairman of the convention. Sen. Irving Ives of New York will take over as permanent chairman of tomorrow's session.

The weekend proceedings are touched off today by a mile and a half parade. The parade will be headed by a pair of elephants and will include floats entered by 32 delegations, matching bands from nine high schools in Oberlin, Elyria, Lakewood and Mansfield, and will be covered by a blanket of 12 AT-6 trainer planes from the air force base in Cleveland.

Harding To Run in Field Of Nine at Ashland Relays

A collection of field and track men from nine schools including Harding, Ashland, Cleveland West, Wooster, Bellevue, Norwalk, Galion and Painesville will rally tomorrow to compete for team and individual honors in the fourth annual Ashland Relays.

Harding will enter the meet with a record of two dual meets won, counting wins over Delaware Willis and Galion, and two lost, being sidetracked by Columbus West and Upper Sandusky.

The Prexies accomplished their second win yesterday at Galion where they proved themselves better muddlers than the Galionites by taking 10 firsts of 14 events in acquiring 76½ points to 41½ for the host. It rained throughout the entire meet, causing a poor showing in the records.

Ronald Myers, Galion's star dash man, was high individual honor dinner as he took first in the 880-yard relay, 440-yard dash, 100-yard dash and the 220-yard yard dash for a 15-point total in winning all four of Galion's firsts.

As for tomorrow's relays, the Prexies will enter competition with everything to win and very little to lose. They finished at the bottom in last year's trials with a total of seven points. "A few more points are expected this year," Coach Somerlot said.

Ashland and Cleveland West will be favored this year. A hand on the strength of their victory in the Fremont Relays and Cleveland West on a good showing in the Cleveland city meet at Lee Teen.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 7—Ohio State university offered its 17th annual football clinic for the Buckeye high school coaches today, and between 500 and 600 of the scholastic mentors were scheduled to attend.

Frank Leahy, Notre Dame coach, was to open the program at 9 a. m. with an outline of the "T" offense. The Irish coach, arriving at 7:50 a. m. was to fly back to South Bend in time for this afternoon's grid practice.

Coach Wesley Fesler and his entire Ohio State staff were to take over for sessions during the afternoon and Saturday morning, with a banquet tonight sandwiched in.

Ohio's High School Coaches Association will name new officers at the weekend clinic.

Ford Hydraulic Touch Control

Ford TRACTOR

Maybe I'm lazy or maybe I'm smart. Anyhow, when I'm on a tractor, I don't want any tugging at stiff levers to raise heavy plows, cultivators and whatnot. I'll take Ford Hydraulic Touch Control every time. I can sit on this new Ford Tractor and lift or lower and set an implement by moving the Touch Control lever.

Say! Maybe you are like me . . . lazy or smart, take your choice. Anyhow, if you want easier, faster farming tell me to bring out a new Ford Tractor for a free demonstration that you'll enjoy . . . without obligation. .

By the way . . . my good service on all Ford Tractors and equipment for them has a lot of folks talking.

MANGRUM TAKES LEAD IN GOODALL

By The Associated Press

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., May 7—Lloyd Mangrum fired 68 today to catch today as he and 12 others of the world's best professional golfers tangled in the second and third rounds of the Goodall round robin tournament at the Sunset Hill Country club.

Mangrum, National open champion of 1946 and leading money winner of the present season, broke the course yesterday to take the lead with a score of plus 14.

The Goodall tournament is played on a "match play" basis and Mangrum had no help from any soft touches in his foursomes in projecting himself into the lead.

Today they play two rounds with the pairings completely scrambled. Tomorrow they play another 18, and on Sunday comes the final. In the end, each of golfdom's prime dozen will have matched strokes—in match play an in the same foursome—against each of his 15 rivals.

THERE'S NO DOUBT THE LITTLE CHILD GOODESS IS THE LONG-LOST CHILD WE ARE LOOKIN' FOR-BUT THE QUESTION STILL UNANSWERED IS, WHAT HAPPENED TO THE CHILDS MOTHER?
I HAVE A HUNCH THE MOTHER IS ALIVE - IT DOESN'T SEEM REASONABLE TO ASSUME THAT THE NATIVES WOULD DARE TO KILL THE MOTHER OF THEIR SACRED GOODESS-
WHAT'S REASONABLE IN ONE LAND IS FOOLISHNESS IN ANOTHER - BUT OUR JOB IS TO FIND THE MOTHER-OR AT LEAST LEARN WHAT HAPPENED TO HER-
YOU ARE SO CLEVER-YOU'VE SEEN SO MANY STRANGE PLACES, SO MANY WONDERFUL THINGS-I WISH I WERE AS WISE AS YOU-
HONEST AGNES-YOU'RE TWICE AS SMART AS I AM-A MONKEY AIN'T TRAVELED ALL OVER THE WORLD, AN' WHEN IT GETS HOME IT WILL STILL BE A MONKEY-

Surprising Philadelphia Athletics Reach Top of League with Five Straight Wins

By The Associated Press

Give a cheer for 85-year-old Connie Mack and his surprising Philadelphia Athletics. Five straight wins, climaxed by a kayo decision over Bobby Feller, have boosted the A's into the American league lead.

Picked for the second division with the White Sox, Browns and Senators, the Athletics begin to look like serious contenders for a higher spot.

Hard To Pick Reason

It's difficult to put a finger on the reason. They are hitting only .246 as a club and the top batter, Pete Suder at .346, is spotted eighth in the order. Only five of the first 14 pitchers went the route. Still they win. Shortstop, Eddie Joost, with four homers and a .333 average rates some credit.

Pitching, of course, is the strong point, despite sore arms and the poor spring form of Bill McCahan and Joe Coleman. Lou Brissie, brilliant rookie with an injured leg, helped out with two wins and now Dick Fowler seems ready.

Fowler worked only two-thirds of an inning on relief before yesterday's 8-5 victory over Cleveland.

Fight at Fenway Park

George Vico, Detroit's rookie first baseman, and Birdie Tebbets, the Boston Red Sox' catcher, staged a fight to enliven proceedings at Fenway Park. The two players fell when Tebbets tagged Vico as a squeeze play went awry.

Vicho punched Tebbets' mask, Birdie flung it off and threw a punch. After they had been separated and ejected from the game, they scuffled in the tunnel to the dressing rooms.

Although the Red Sox knocked out Hal Newhouser in the first inning, they lost the game to Detroit, 8-3. Hal White walked six but allowed only four hits in 8 2-3 innings while the Tigers flattened Jack Kramer with his first loss.

There was an argument in New York, where the St. Louis Browns claimed Bobby Brown's game-winning homer was a foul ball. The homer came with a man on in the eighth for a 6-5 Yankee victory.

Washington pulled up to the .500 mark by shutting out Chicago for the second night in a row, 5-0, on Early Wynn's three-hit pitching, none in the last six frames.

Pittsburgh's six-game win streak was broken in the National league by the New York Giants 9-2. The result left the Bucs in first place by only 18 percentage points.

All other National league games were washed out—Brooklyn at Chicago, Boston at Cincinnati and a scheduled night meeting of Philadelphia at St. Louis.

INDIANAPOLIS UPS LEAD TO 2 GAMES

By The Associated Press

League-leading Indianapolis invaded Minneapolis today to open a four-game series after increasing its lead over second-place St. Paul to two full games in the American Association scramble by downing the Saints last night, 10 to 2.

In yesterday's only other game, Toledo tumbled Minneapolis from third place into fourth behind the idle Milwaukee Brewers by overpowering the Millers, 11 to 3.

At St. Paul, Jim Bagby limited the Saints to five hits while the Indians tagged Phil Huagstad, Pat McGlothin and Charlie Samakalis for 10 safe blows. The Indians scored four runs in the fifth and came back with a five in the seventh.

Toledo southpaw Chet Johnson, although wild, allowed Minneapolis only four hits to win easily. He issued 12 bases on balls but struck out six and never gave up more than one hit in any inning. Don Richmond and Frank Mancuso each hit a home run and between them drove in eight of Toledo's 11 runs.

ADDED STRENGTH COMING TO CUBS

Catcher, Two Infielders Optioned to Marion.

Added strength for the Marion Cubs is due in a day or two when three players released from clubs higher up in the Chicago Cub's farm system will come to Marion.

A catcher, Bob Osgood, from the Springfield, Mass., Cubs will join Tom Gatts in the backstopping half of the Marion battery until Manager Zeke Bekeza's broken hand bone mends.

In addition the Cubs will get a first baseman in James Kyler, who is being sent here from Visalia, Calif., and a third baseman in Don Schmitt, who is due to arrive in Marion today from DeCatur, Ill.

Ohio-Indiana league president Frank Colley informed the Marion Cubs today that he fined Manager Bekeza and two unidentified Cubs $45 for the rhubarb at Springfield Wednesday night, and in addition suspended Bekeza for three days, the suspension to be lifted for good behavior.

Bekeza was banned from the playing field after a tenth inning argument which lasted 20 minutes.

One of the players was sent out of the park when he hoisted a white flag from the dugout, and the other player was charged with thumbing his nose at the ump when being kicked off the field.

OSU Angler Likes Spinning Reel for Fishing in Olentangy

By The United Press

COLUMBUS, May 7—George E. Haney, assistant track coach at Ohio State university and ardent fisherman, would like other anglers around the state to taste the joys of the spinning reel.

He says he bought a spinning reel last August, built himself a spinning rod, and has been a bug on the sport ever since. His favorite fishing waters are the beautiful Olentangy, which runs hard by the university.

"The regulation spinning lures run too deep for waters like the Olentangy," he says, "because they are continually snagging rocks, so I use small size regular bass plugs and a rod much stiffer than the regular spinning rod. I like a medium six-foot casting rod.

"I took some nice bass this way, and it is a great thrill to land them on such light tackle and line. In one pool I played a fish for 65 minutes before he finally broke loose on a straight-away run. Whatever it was, it hit a speed shad and fought the maximum pressure of the six-pound line the entire time."

Switching to fishing prospects for the Ohio angler this weekend, the prize spot appeared to be the Pleasant Hill reservoir in Richland county near Mansfield.

Fishermen there last week caught an average of three fish per hour with the crappie making up 75 per cent of the haul. About 10 per cent bullheads and some miscellaneous species made up the rest of the catch.

BOUDREAU
Had Bad Day

Home runs by Ken Keltner and Joe Gordon were the only Indian bright spots in an otherwise dismal day. Keltner connected for a grand-slam homer in the second inning, his sixth of the season. Gordon slammed his round tripper in the sixth, indicating he may be pulling out of a protracted batting slump.

Dick Fowler kept eight Cleveland hits well scattered and aside from the two homers did not permit an extra base hit.

ALL O-I LEAGUE GAMES RAINED OUT

Further Rain May Stop Portsmouth at Marion Tonight.

Old Man Rain set them all down in the Ohio-Indiana league last night, leaving the teams to make up the games another day in double-header programs.

Portsmouth was scheduled to meet the Marion Cubs on the Lincoln Park diamond, and that game, washed out with the rest, has not yet been re-scheduled.

The Cubs are scheduled to tangle with Portsmouth again tonight on the Lincoln field at 7:45, but if the rain keeps pouring as it did this morning, tonight's game, too, will go down the drain.

Saturday night, the Cubs open a three game series with the Springfield Giants. Two games will be played Sunday, the first starting at 2 p. m. and the second at 7:45.

Other games tonight in the Ohio-Indiana league are Springfield at Lima, Richmond at Newark and Muncie at Zanesville.

First Women's Tourney Puts Marion Golf Into Full Swing

The Marion Country club now is officially under way for the present season of golfing with the opening of the women's tournament yesterday.

Although the golf-minded have been out "putting" around both the Country club and Mar-O-Del courses for several weeks on intermittent good days, Marion Country club golf actually started last Saturday with the first men's tournament.

Playing under the threat of rain, Robert Owens, last year's Country club champion, won the opening 18-hole medal play with a 75 gross on a six-stroke handicap. The course is in good condition despite the weather.

Aces Wednesday

Two days ago, Leo "Lefty" Groll further indicated that the season is on and that everything is advancing rapidly by shooting a hole-in-one on the 150-yard number six hole in the second tournament of the season in an 18-hole medal event. This is the first ace to be made over the links in two seasons. He scored 79 with a six-stroke handicap.

Yesterday a group of 20 Marion Country club women golfers, participating in the first tournament of a regular Thursday afternoon feature, engaged in a nine-hole medal play with a full handicap in three divisions—the A, B and C classes.

Mrs. Robert Owens compiled the best score, going around the course for a gross 49 on a five-stroke handicap, in the A class, while Mrs. Phil Guthery toured the course in 65 with a handicap of 14-in the B class. Mrs. C. K. Carter had a gross of 80, a 20-stroke handicap to score a net 60 in the C ranks.

Next Thursday the ladies are scheduled for a two-ball, best ball team event with the A and B players taking a C class player for a partner.

Play Tomorrow

Male golfers are scheduled for a medal-against-par play tomorrow and Wednesday.

Ladies' gross, handicap and net scores for scores for the opening follow:

Class A—Mrs. Robert Owens, 49-5-44; Mrs. K. N. Bowers, 58-11-47; Mrs. Barney Buettin, 58-11-47.

Class B—Mrs. Phil Guthery, 63-14-51; Mrs. H. W. Freck, 67-16-51; Mrs. Paul Hunt, 70-19-51.

Class C—Mrs. C. K. Carter, 80-20-60; Mrs. Paul Frye, 82-20-62; Mrs. Maurice Cornell, 84-20-64.

More Horse Owners Chuck Citation Fears

By The Associated Press

BALTIMORE, May 7 — Apparently growing braver with the passage of time, more owners of three-year-olds are moving through with announced intentions to tackle Citation in Pimlico's Preakness.

After the Calumet comet swept through the Kentucky Derby field, there was a strong feeling he had scared off all future competition in the Preakness and Belmont Stakes, second and third legs of the mythical Triple Crown of horse racing.

But yesterday the Pimlico management said it had nine likely candidates besides Citation for the $100,000 race to be run on May 15.

Latest to send word was Max Hirsch, who said he will be ready with King Ranch's Better Self and A. J. Sackett's Gasparilla.

Another entry listed is C. V. Whitney's Mount Marcy and Vulcan's Forge. The former ran second to My Request in the Wood Memorial at Jamaica two weeks ago, and Vulcan's Forge raced only yesterday at Pimlico, losing by a neck to Oriole in a six-furlong test.

The probable field also includes three Maryland hopefuls, Bomar Stable's Piet, W. L. Brann's Escadru, Sylvester W. Labrot Jr.'s Bovard, William Helis' Salmagundi, and My Request, who carries the silks of Ben Whitaker.

VFW TO PRACTICE

The VFW baseball team will practice Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. at McKinley park. All team members are urged to attend.

Grid Genius Paul Brown Was Thwarted But Once—at OSU—Will He Go Back?

(This is the second of two articles dealing with the Ohio State University football situation.)

By JOHN BARRINGTON
INS Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, May 7 — For a gentleman who has barely reached the life-begins-at-40 age bracket, Paul E. Brown has enjoyed unusual success at his chosen profession.

Few will gainsay that the highly personable wizard who now directs the Cleveland pro Browns' football fortunes is one of the all time greats of grid coaching.

Brown, himself, is said to feel that his personal ambition has been thwarted only once in a lifetime of connection with the sport.

Clashed with St. John

That was during the 1941-43 period, when as head coach at Ohio State, he locked horns with the Bucks' shrewd old athletic director, L. W. St. John.

Brown was determined to exercise unlimited authority over Buck football policy and he had frank hopes of succeeding St. John when the latter's pending retirement took effect. It was inevitable that such ideas would cause turmoil in the czarist regime "The Saint" had maintained for so many years.

After the 1943 season, Brown went into the service and became connected with the Navy's athletic program at Great Lakes. Shortly thereafter, he accepted an offer by Mickey McBride of the Cleveland All-America conference team to become coach and general manager.

Brown's already ruffled feathers certainly were not smoothed by subsequent remarks of St. John, which were tactless to say the least.

Most of the current belief is that Brown would chuck his excellent Cleveland setup to return to Ohio State as combined coach-athletic director is predicated on the supposition that he would like to square accounts.

Want Him Back

Brown disciples, many of them men of great influence on the Buckeye athletic scene, already are conducting a carefully planned campaign to bring him back.

He, himself, is said to regret that the situation has been built up to proportions of a major feud. However, he has never convinced the public that he would not be amenable to a proper OSU offer.

Fuel has been added by Brown's policy of signing Ohio Staters to his pro eleven. The stream of players has included Dante Lavelli, Lou Groza, Lin Houston, Tony Adamle, Bob Gaudio, Ollie Cline, Dean Sensanbaugher and Bob Brugge. All had college eligibility remaining, although their original classes had graduated.

Brown insists that he is merely trying to build the strongest possible Cleveland team. Ohio State officials feel that he is signing athletes he doesn't really need, merely to pester the OSU regime.

Whatever the explanation, Brown and his Buck alumni have won two straight All-America conference titles while Ohio State has been a disappointment under former Brown lieutenant Paul Bixler in 1946 and under Wesley Fesler in 1947.

Only Brown Knows

Whether Brown actually would return on his own terms is something that only the wiry grid genius knows. Possibly he is surfeited with success and glory; perhaps he does have enough money laid by to return to a less remunerative campus position.

Whatever the case may be, the university athletic situation at present is the loser in a clash of personal feeling between its present administrators and Brown.

The best thing that could happen would be the intervention of some diplomatic soul who could persuade the two factions to bury the hatchet and meet in a large area of mutual benefit.

Certainly there is much for the university to gain in an harmonious relationship with the head of one of the most powerful professional organizations in the land.

By the same token, Brown's stature would be increased with the laying aside of personal rancor and ambition.

TIGERS' WAKEFIELD MAY BE ON BLOCK

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 7—Dick Wakefield, who cost the Detroit Tigers $52,000 in bonus money in 1941 and is hitting an insignificant .074 for them in 1946, may be on the trading block.

But the Tigers branded as "preposterous" today any idea Dick may be sold for a $10,000 waiver price.

Wakefield currently is riding the bench with two hits in 27 times at bat this season, hitless in his last 25 times up.

The Detroit Free Press said today the Tigers have asked waivers on the 27-year-old outfielder.

Wakefield came off the University of Michigan campus to sign a Tiger contract in 1941 for $50,000 and a new automobile.

He played the last 55 games of that season for Winston-Salem, hitting an even .300. The following year, playing for Beaumont, Wakefield led the Texas league at bat with an average of .345.

For the Tigers in 1943 he batted .316. Then followed a term in the Navy, but he was released in July of 1944, returning to Detroit and batting a terrific .355 for the last 78 games.

Wakefield went back to the Navy in 1945 and after his discharge in 1946 he hit .268, last season .283.

Vermouth has a base of white wine, fortified with alcohol and then aged for a year or more in wooden casks.

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

RAPID CITY, S. D

YOU can swear in English—but you can't in Sioux.

The Indians were too simple for sacrilege.

The English language probably has some of the most tremendous swear words ever invented by a civilized race. But the Sioux tongue is completely free of impiety. There was no need for a commandment against taking the name of their God in vain. Their language doesn't even permit it.

Hal Boyle

This is an odd truth about this savage but once sternly moral people.

The white visitors here have a mock ceremony during which they initiate visitors into the mythical "singing tribe of wahoo." The initiation, conducted in Indian, pledges the new members to a vow that the Black Hills are the best damned place in the world to live.

But the word "damned" has to be given in English. The Sioux just didn't have a word for it.

They are among the few people in history who have been vanquished and remain admired by their conquerors. Not for what they have become—for many have taken the white man's vices—but for what they were.

They were originally a race that never heard of Christ but lived by his golden rule. They have fallen upon twilight days, and this is upon the conscience of many good people out here who want to help them.

"At one time they were the finest race on the earth," one woman said simply.

* * *

SOUTH DAKOTANS are a highly political people with an inland Republican complexion reminiscent of Maine and Vermont.

The Mount Rushmore memorial has the carved faces of Washington, Jefferson, Teddy Roosevelt and Lincoln. The stock election year joke by Republicans is:

"We put up Jefferson just to remember what a Democrat looked like."

When it rains, the faces of all four presidents stream rivulets of tears.

"Lincoln can't stand what happened under the New Deal," say the Republican tourists.

Reply the Democrats:

"Jefferson is crying over what the Republican congress is doing to Truman."

* * *

THE MOST FAMOUS visitors to the Black Hills since General Custer bowed out to the encircling Sioux were President Calvin Coolidge and his wife.

They had the summer White House here in 1927, and their memory remains. I slept in Calvin's former bed. It was still cool.

The folks out here took particular pains to see that the president had good fishing. Without telling Coolidge anything about it, they stocked a stream near his lodge with plenty of trout—then put wire nets above and below the bend where he cast his hook. He couldn't miss.

It was a kind of silent hospitality no one mentioned at the time—and they'd do the same thing again today, regardless of party. That's the way people are out here.

I asked one lady—a fervid Democrat—what she remembered most about Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge.

"He had a lukewarm handshake," she said, "and her hand was warm and firm."

That may be political prejudice. But Mrs. Coolidge did make a big hit. The name of the creek in which her husband fished was changed from Squaw creek to Grace Coolidge creek—in her honor.

* * *

ONE REDOUBTABLE visitor well remembered was Lauritz Melchior, the Metropolitan Opera tenor.

Returning to his hotel after a hunting trip, the doughty Dane requested the management to pluck a goose for him. He was regretfully informed no facilities were available.

Melchior blithely set about the task himself. When the maid came, she found a happy tenor, a plucked goose—and a room snowed full of feathers up to her knees.

Tickets On Sale at CARROLL'S Jewelry Store, SCHAFFNER'S Record Department and from Members of the Business and Professional Women's Club in Marion

The Harmonaires, popular singing group now nationally known for appearances on top-flight eastern radio shows and for numerous recordings, will appear at the Palace theater in Marion on Wednesday night, May 12, at 8 p. m.

The Marion program will be the group's only appearance in this vicinity and will be given under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marion.

To assure everyone having a seat, the sale of tickets will be limited to the seating capacity of the theater, the club announced. Carroll's Jewelry Store and Schaffner's record department in Marion have been named ticket headquarters. Tickets also from members of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Since they have been in the east, the Harmonaires have appeared on the Fred Allen show twice, the Henry Morgan show twice, the Spike Jones show and have made hundreds of transcriptions.

The group has committed to memory some 700 numbers, including popular ballads, novelties, classical numbers, hymns, and southern folk songs.

The Harmonaires originally began singing at the Curtiss-Wright plant in Columbus. Under the direction of Raglan Reid, a graduate of Ohio State University Law School and Wilberforce University, the group has increased to 12, including a pianist. In November, 1945, they aired their first program over WLW. In 1946 they became featured on a half-hour Sunday morning show originating at WLW. It was carried by 54 NBC stations and brought the Harmonaires national recognition.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

GARY COOPER, born May 7, 1901, in Helena, Mont., came to top rank fame in pictures after a long hard pull. At Grinnell college (Iowa) the dramatic club turned him down because he had stage fright so badly that he stuttered. He tried to be a cartoonist and commercial artist and failed. He went to Los Angeles and got a job as cowboy extra, climbing to the rank of one of Hollywood's most famous players.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Medical men are interested in the case of a woman who is awake for the first time since 1936. Some suspect the Landon campaign put her to sleep.

• • •

By sleeping for 12 years she also missed Dewey's first two tries, "all and short of war" and the beginning of the century of the common man"... all spectacular events.

• • •

A long sleep has its compensations but I wouldn't want to be the one to break the news to any woman that she had aged 12 years since she went to bed.

• • •

Still a woman lucky enough to have known little of Hitler and less of high prices for 12 years has something to be thankful for.

• • •

If I were she I'd go right back to sleep for another 12 years. She can always catch a Dewey campaign.

• • •

Frankly 1948 doesn't have much more to recommend it than 1936. More medicine shows, that's all.
